OUR SPECIAL BRAND EXPORT BEER

For rare purity and excellence of preparation, this beer is the peer of any, domestic or imported. Brewed from the finest grades of Hops and Barley Malt, as a beverage, it is highly esteemed by connoisseurs for its exquisite hop flavor, and as the best of tonics its use is recommended by physicians to all sufferers from nervous and weakening ailments. The remarkable hop strength of this beer is of great medicinal value in its sedative effects upon nervous and excitable temperaments. The contents of one bottle will frequently produce the most refreshing sleep, even in severe cases of insomnia. Being thoroughly fermented, and when bottled, scientifically "pasteurized," this beer is particularly adapted for shipment to semi-tropical countries, where, under most severe climatic conditions, it will keep almost indefinitely, retaining to the last its clear and sparkling appearance. Pale amber in color. Sold only in bottles. Every bottle sealed with the Crown Cork Stopper.

OUR BREWERY, ALEXANDRIA, VA.

As to the merit of our products, the public needs no introduction, for nearly half a century we have enjoyed a reputation for Quality equalled by few and excelled by none. It has been demonstrated that the public appreciates a High-Grade Beer, one that is brewed from the finest Hops and Malt, and as our reputation is founded on the confidence of the public, we will continue to maintain the same high standard which we set at the beginning of our career, 46 years ago.

ANNON DISFIGURED, BUT STILL IN THE RING

Even Speaker's Bitterest Enemies Are Compelled to Admire His Courage and Ability---Significant Happenings of Past Few Days.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] In the way of a re-election by the In-surgents, and as a reward for their gift, the old hotspur, burning with humiliation, took the bark of one of them for voting to retain him in the speaker's chair. For this outbreak, which came the night after the Regulars, his friends and allies, roundly abused him. The press of the day, however, lost him more friends than any other one act of his life.

Mr. Cannon might as well get down and out. His day is past. The issue, founded on his name, whether real or not, will stand so long as he is in evidence. He has been overpowered, not beaten, and he must retire voluntarily or be retired against his will. Too many people are camping on his trail. The press of the country hold him responsible for the tariff on white paper. The Chicago Tribune, a noted interstate shipping bill, through the House. The Appalachian Park supporters do not trust him. Labor union leaders do not trust him. The preachers love him not.

The old man is not to blame for all these things, but he is the biggest thing in sight, and, therefore, the first one to be hit.

Significant Happenings. Three significant things have happened recently. Pinchot, Roosevelt's forester, has gone to Europe to meet the mighty hunter. Was he asked to go? If so, who asked him? Did they talk about? Thousands of questions are being asked. Is this part of the back-from-Europe movement? Gardfield, former Secretary of the Interior, has declined to run for Governor of his State on a Taft platform. That is serious. Poor old Taft is getting hit at every turn in the road. His man Hitchcock is said to have blushed like a hute in distributing patronage. He is charged with promising and not fulfilling. Rows upon rows of rows are wagging about his head.

The election in the Fourteenth Massachusetts District was the most important of the three. For many years W. C. Lovering, deceased, represented that district in the House. His last plurality was about 14,000, and Tuesday, Boss, a Democrat, carried it by 5,000. There were complications, it is true, but this shows the way the wind is blowing. The Democrats have a show to carry the next House if they will only stand together and show a solid front to the enemy.

Taft Policies in Danger. The Taft policies are in danger. This Congress is not disposed to do much for him or any other person. His bills—the ones he is recommending—will pass, but in amended form. The Hepburn rate bill will be amended, but not as Taft would like for it to be. Senator Cummings won his fight in the Senate. The commerce court and perhaps the feature that permits savings will be eliminated. The postal bill has passed the Senate, and is now in the House. The injunction bill, which carries provisions in line with the judicial decisions of Taft, will become a law. It will enlarge the power of the Federal judge and provides against boycotts and lockouts.

The standard bills, which passed the House, will, it is believed, pass the Senate. The Republicans there will not take the risk. There is too much danger of setting the country on fire. If all goes well, and the Regulars and Insurgents do not mix it too often, the last of July should see the end of this session.

UNIVERSITY NO MATCH FOR STRONG ST. JOHN'S

Maryland Team Clearly Outplays Virginia in Every Department of Game---Charlottesville Nine Exceedingly Weak in Batting.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Charlottesville, Va., March 24.—St. Johns played the first game on her

Southern trip to-day, defeating Virginia rather easily by the score of 6 to 2. The victory of the Maryland lads was a clear-cut one, as they outplayed Virginia in every department of the game. J. Wilson, who did the twirling, was a puzzle, allowing only a half-dozen scattered hits. He weakened in the ninth, and after issuing two passes, was replaced by Stevens, who distinguished himself by fanning Grant, Rixey and Stanton.

St. Johns secured a clean dozen hits. In the second inning Douglas, the track star, was landed on for four hits, which clinched the game. Melville started off with a slashing drive to centerfield, and Dean sent a fast one over second.

The visitors fielded remarkably clean, especially Captain Wilson. In the sixth he followed a fumbled ball near half-way across the diamond and threw the runner out at first. The other fielding feature of the contest was Jones's stop of Captain Wilson's line drive, which nearly took the Virginia twirler off his feet.

Judging from to-day's exhibition, Virginia has an exceedingly weak batting team. Pitcher was the only man who could get more than one hit off the visiting team.
